課程描述 Course Description
This course is designed to help students learn elements of drama and explore enabling features in the selected plays. Students will engage in reading drama by recognizing those elements, illustrating their functions and effects, and participating in the interpretations. Students will learn to read a play independently, critically, and enjoyably, and are encouraged to do a play performance. Students have to preview the textbook before each class. Both midterm and final exams will be held according to the schedule. Students may opt for doing a performance, a recitation, or a term paper in lieu of the final exam.
