課程描述 Course Description
Nowadays the importance of English writing ability cannot be overemphasized. Especially in the multi-cultured environment, students in Taiwan know the importance of the ability of writing in English. Teacher of this course hopes to strengthen students' writing concepts and ideas. Besides, In this course, the teacher hopes to review what students have learned in the past and push them to use them as many sentences patterns and correct grammar in their writing. The teacher hopes to push students to review what they had learned in before classes and try to produce a piece of writing that students themselves love to keep for future use or review. The topics for students' writing will be close to life and learning. To be sure, some topics like former writing will be encouraged to write again. In all, the writing topics will be useful for this class and for future life.
