This course first examines Greek mythology, its origins and how the Gods and Goddesses influenced everyday life. Next we will look briefly at Roman mythology and see how they adapted many of the Greek mythology traits for their own use. We will then learn about Norse mythology and how their concept of how the world began is different from Greek and Roman mythology. We will also learn about the legend of King Arthur and North American mythology. Time permitting, we may take a look at fairy tales and their moral implications as well as modern day urban legends
