課程目標 Course Objectives
Promoting destinations by exploiting culture has become an important ingredient of tourism strategies in recent years. This course takes a broad view of cultural tourism - from high culture and its festivals to popular culture, local customs and heritage. The course combines two perspectives - the arts and heritage organization' s engagement with cultural tourism; and the management of cultural tourism at the local, regional and international level. Successful cultural tourism involves visitor centered approaches, partnership and sensitivity to host cultures.
