課程描述 Course Description

This is a course offered to the first year Master or Doctoral students who are interested in the field of International Finance. We also encourage the fourth year college students who are interested in pursuing higher degree in Economics to take this course. We will offer lectures in basic international finance theories and train students in reading advanced papers in the related topics of this field. Since this subject covers a broad range of topics. We will stress on both theories and empirical work on selected topics in this course. Students are trained to assimilate the materials by further paper reading and class presentations. After taking this course, students will have better knowledge in writing an academic paper in the field of International Finance. They will also be better equipped with the skills of data collections, presentations, and analytical ability to work in the real globalized world.
