課程描述 Course Description

This course is designed for those who have fundamental knowledge on microeconomics, mostly the senior students in Econ department. The materials covered involve a large amount of figures and theoretical concepts, so a comprehensive review of microeconomics analysis beforehand will be very helpful. The course is organized into one 3-hour lecture per week. Of this, 2 hours and a half are devoted to formal lectures and half hour to student discussion, if possible. Homework will be assigned in class and discussed one week after assignment.
