Students are responsible for reading the journal papers in advance.

The instructor will post additional lecture notes from accounting journal covered via e-learning website. Students learn the methods of collect, analyze and summarize data. Students will be exposed to the study of accounting journal papers to equip with the ability of logical thinking, written/oral communication, professional ethics on business in stakeholder's interest, and corporate policy and decision.

課程目標 Course Objectives

The objective of behavioral accounting is to understand, explain, and predict human behavior in accounting situations or contexts. Behavioral accounting takes into account key decision-makers' experience and incentives as part of the evaluation of a company. It also examines how accounting practices and processes, in turn, affect the behavior and processes of personnel working in a company. The course is designed to expose students to a selection of behavioral and experimental research in accounting, auditing and taxation. Students should leave this course with a basic knowledge of behavioral research and be better able to create, analyze, and critique such research. This course may also help students identify a dissertation topic.
