其他補充說明 (Supplemental instructions)

Students should read the stories before the relevant class. Class activities will include discussion, oral presentations in small groups in addition to the instructor's lecture. The instructor will use audio-visual aids as well as the textbook in his lectures. Quizzes will be given as homework and the Midterm and Final Exams will be open book and based on the reading and my PPT lectures.

Students are expected to attend classes every week as well as midterm and final exams. If students wish to take time off, they must request a leave of absence online before the class and which the teacher must approve. Please also send me an email. If students are ill, they should email me that they will be unable to attend the class. They will then be excused. If students take leave without permission or are not unwell, they will lose 20% from their attendance grade. Four absences for whatever reason will result in the student failing the class automatically.

Students (and teachers) are expected to arrive on time for class. Classes start at ten past the hour and attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. If students are not present when their name is called, they will lose 5% from their attendance grade each time they are late. If they arrive 30 minutes after class starts, they will be marked as absent. Please do not speak Chinese in class or sleep. Also, do not eat or bring food into class. Phones, tablets and laptops are forbidden for the duration of the class but can be used in the 2x10 minutes of break time. Please bring a pen and notebook to every class for making notes.

Attendance will begin from week 3, but if students sign up in weeks 1 and 2 and do not attend, they will be marked as absent or may well be asked to drop the class if the class is over subscribed. If you are graduating this semester, please give me time to enter your grades.

Each week, starting from week 6, three students will make a separate presentation about one of the topics for that week. Each student should present for about 15-20 minutes. Please email me your PPT a few days before you are due to present it. I will then check it, correct it and make comments and email it back to you. Then check my reply, note the changes, make adjustments as appropriate and then come in on Thursday morning and make your presentation. Please arrive a bit earlier to set it up on the computer if you are doing a presentation. I would also like a list of your sources of information on one slide and a few questions for your classmates to discuss in small groups. Please note that when you email me yoThis class is designated as face to face on campus but we may have to have an online class or even an exam, due to weather, teacher being sick, or a natural disaster. If this is the case, please check your equipment and make sure that your camera, microphone and speakers are working properly. When presenting or listening, please make sure that your entire face is visible, facing the front, you're not backlit, and that you are ready to participate just as if we were having physical class.ur PPT or if you wish to communicate with me, clearly write your English name and which class you are in so that I know who you are without having to search for you via your student number.
